Good Morning Julie,

I hope you are well.

I have had a conversation with one of our neighbours who has said that the people who live in the flats above our cafe are concerned about the hours that we have applied for and that 11pm is too late which they would oppose unless we change it. We have come to a compromise of 8pm which would be sufficient for our plans and that they would also be happy with.

Do I need to start the whole process again or is it possible to change the existing one?

Many thanks for your help and I look forward to your reply.

Kind Regards,
